

EDITORIAL

This issue consists of scientific contributions related to the field of Universal History. The different investigations deal with themes belonging to the Ancient and Modern worlds. The studies presented belong to Buisel, María Delia: Romulus and Remus. From Horace to Saint Augustine and to Saint Leo the Great; Botti, Sibila Beatriz: Salustio. Sallust. Historiographic analysis of his works and their context; Culotta, María Cecilia: Egyptian kingship in times of Persian domination in Herodotus' account. A state of art; León, María Victoria: The selection and formation process of the Chinese ruling elite in the 16th century. A western look. And Cardozo, Paula presents a review on: Boch, Viviana. The agony of paganism. The circle of Simaco and his contemporaries.

Viviana Boch, PhD

Director of Journal of Universal History